

Friendship Pasadena Church (FBC) Corporate Fast Calendar

The primary reason we pray and fast is to draw near to God. Fasting tenderizes and sensitizes our hearts, driving us to focus solely on God and in return to hear what God is saying and pray the prayers that He is praying. He is a God that loves to answer prayer and He loves when we set aside time, push away distractions, and willingly posture ourselves to be before Him. Read: Acts 13:1-5, Nehemiah 9:1-3, Acts 14:23.

Instructions: each designated ministry/auxiliary pray and fast for your primary ministry/auxiliary for 24 hours from 6 p.m. the previous day to 6 p.m. of the designated fast day. For example, if your designated fast day is Monday, January 4, you begin your fast 6 p.m. Sunday, 1/3/16 and end it at 6 p.m. Monday 1/4/16. General church members pray and fast on the day designated by the first letter of your last name. Praise and Worship God. •Confess your sins and the corporate sins of the church. •Follow the example of Daniel (Daniel 9:4-19).

Pray for our church, using the general prayer points above. Choose the fast that's best for you and your auxiliary/ministry (visit: <http://pfbchurch.net/>, click on Corporate Fasting).
